THE ARTISTS — LIVE DEMONSTRATIONS

In partnership with the Whistler Live — Artwalk Inside we will host a large collection of some of the leading First Nations artists from Squamish, Lílwat and other Northwest Coastal Aboriginal Nations.

Master carvers Aaron Nelson-Moody, Squamish Nation and Delmar Williams, Lílwat Nation, have been commissioned to carve four pieces in our Great Hall. Squamish and Lílwat Nation artists are also scheduled to be on site demonstrating their craft on a daily basis. Visit our giftshop for a full collection of Native Art.

ABORIGINAL CAFÉ

- > Indigenous ingredients with a modern twist
- > Open daily
- > Extra seating
- > Complementary wireless internet
- > Group lunches and lunches to go

FARMERS MARKET

A special Winter Farmers Market will be held in the Istken Hall on Sundays from 10:00 am – 4:00 pm will continue throughout the Olympics and Paralympics.

ABOUT THE SLCC

The SLCC, a not-for-profit initiative is located in Whistler's Upper Village at 4584 Blackcomb Way. It embodies the spirit of partnership between the Squamish and Lílwat Nations, and our shared values around preserving, revitalizing and sharing our traditional and modern cultures with the world. All proceeds from the SLCC are invested in training and cultural revitalization programs for the Squamish Nation and Lílwat Nation. We invite every visitor to Whistler to explore the SLCC, meet the ambassadors, experience a performance and help us celebrate the Vancouver 2010 Olympic Winter Games.

Details and information on performances and artists can be found at www.slcc.ca/whistler-2010
